Ragnar Avery, Kalkaska Photographer, will discuss various landscape photography situations and how to get the best images in the field for creating beautiful landscape art.

-When and why to use HDR (High Dynamic Range) photography -Why do Focus Stacking -When to use Filters (Circular Polarizer and Neutral Density) to add pop and creativity. Ragnar will discuss how he approaches these situations in the field and how plans for his post processing of a scene. There will be some references to Adobe Lightroom and Photoshop. This workflow will be of interest to all levels of photography.
