

Capitol Christmas Tree

Presented by Bob Holtzman

In 1981 how did a 52-foot white spruce from Michigan's Hiawatha National Forest in the Upper Peninsula get chosen to be the Christmas tree for the lawn at the Capitol in Washington DC and how did his father-in-law, Dick Ruppenthal, get chosen to document the tree's journey from the Upper Peninsula to Washington DC.

Sunday, December 4th, 2pm

Free Event

Sponsored by Alden District Library & Friends
8751 Helena Rd., Alden
(231) 331-4318